$10 All-Access Admission to the National WWI Museum and Memorial

Discounted tickets are available on Oct. 3 and 4, 2025 only.

Map and promotional image can be found here.

KANSAS CITY, MO. – On Friday, Oct. 3 and Saturday, Oct. 4, the National WWI Museum and Memorial will be open from 10 a.m. – 5 p.m. and is offering a special all-access discount admission rate of $10.

Access to the grounds on Oct. 3 and 4 is limited due to a large event rental/concert. Museum and Memorial guests should plan to park offsite or take the KC Streetcar to Union Station.

Guests should use the checkpoint at the intersection of Kessler and Pershing to walk up Kessler to the Museum and Memorial entrance. A Golf Cart relay will take place at the corner of Kessler and Pershing with priority given to visitors of the Museum and Memorial needing ADA access.

This past May, the Museum and Memorial completed a multi-year upgrade, the most expansive changes to the buildings and grounds since opening in 2006. Guests will be able to see these changes, that not only involve upgrades in technology to tell new and interesting narratives from WWI, but create a richer and more immersive visitor experience.

More information about the Museum and Memorial can be found at theworldwar.org.

FOR CONCERT ATTENDEES:

Guests seeking information about access to the grounds for the Chappell Roan concerts should visit chappellroankc.com.

About the National WWI Museum and Memorial

The National WWI Museum and Memorial is America's leading institution dedicated to remembering, interpreting and understanding the Great War and its enduring impacts on the global community. The Museum and Memorial holds the most comprehensive collection of World War I objects and documents in the world and is the second-oldest public museum dedicated to preserving the objects, history and experiences of the war. The Museum and Memorial takes visitors of all ages on an epic journey through a transformative period and shares deeply personal stories of courage, honor, patriotism and sacrifice.

Designated by Congress as America's official World War I Museum and Memorial and located in downtown Kansas City, MO., the National WWI Museum and Memorial inspires thought, dialogue and learning to make the experiences of the Great War era meaningful and relevant for present and future generations.
